NASHVILLE AND CHICAGO
 Visited by Very Disastrous Conflagrations

AND MANY LIVES ARE SACRIFICED.

Governor Thayer of Nebraska Don't Believe the United States Supreme Court Decides Against Him—Boyd's Friends Preparing for a Great Blowout.

NASHVILLE, Jan. 5.—At 5:40 o'clock yesterday afternoon the most disastrous fire Nashville has had since 1881 broke out in Webb, Stevenson & Co.'s store, College street. The fire was confined to the store nearly an hour, but gradually found its way into the adjoining store kept by A. G. Rhoades. Weakly & Warren's seven-story furniture store, north of Webb, Stevenson & Co., was soon a mass of flames.

Members of the colored fire company were standing across the alley on the three-story building of the Phillips & Butterff Manufacturing company, when Weakly & Warren's building suddenly bulged out in the center and fell across the alley. The following firemen, all colored, were caught under the falling building and instantly crushed to death: Aaron Cockrell, Stokes Allen, Harvey Ewing and C. C. Gowdy, the latter the captain of the company. Captain Gowdy was one of the leading citizens of the city, ex-member of the legislature and a faithful and efficient constable.

When Phillips & Butterff's building crushed in, it quickly took fire and was consumed. The wind changed again and the flames spread toward the Noel block and a vacant building adjoining Atwell & Sneed's warehouse burned. The Noel block then caught fire and is in ruins.

The fire was practically under control at 11 o'clock. There was a number of men injured besides the firemen. It is supposed that the fire was of incendiary origin, as Fireman Daly, while in Atwell & Sneed's building, saw a man apply a torch to a mass of inflammable goods in that store.

Estimated loss $600,000. Losses, Phillips & Butterff Manufacturing company, building, $15,000; stock, house furnishing goods $45,000; insured for $40,000. A.
 J. Warren, building $35,000; stock and furniture $30,000. Webb, Stevenson & Co., stock $45,000; Atwell & Sneed, stock and furniture $35,000; A. G. Rhoades, stock and furniture $30,000; buildings occupied by the three latter firms and the vacant store, about $70,000.

The Noel block was occupied by the Western Union Telegraph company and contained about fifty offices and bedrooms. The building cost about $75,000.
 Phillips, Hood & Co., Bradford Nichol, Warren Bros., Freeman Wall Paper company, across College street from the fire, all damaged by water.

In Chicago.

CHICAGO, Jan. 5.—At 2 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in an all night restaurant under the Waverly hotel in Clark street. The hotel was at once filled with smoke and the occupants rushed into the hallway and attempted to reach the lower floors. As a result of the fire two persons were killed, one fatally hurt and four others badly injured. Samuel F. Woods and family, composed of wife, two sons and one daughter, occupied rooms on the top floor. The eldest son was in the office of the second floor when the alarm was given. He at once ran to awaken his parents. They descended in the elevator.
 As Mrs. Woods was stepping out of the elevator and started the elevator up again the unfortunate woman was caught between it and the floor. Her right leg being badly crushed, and otherwise injured internally. She will die. Before Paul Woods could be removed from the elevator he was dead, having suffocated.
 John Meredith, on the top floor, became bewildered and lost his way while attempting to go down stairs. He also suffocated. The fire was a small one and was extinguished after doing $1,200 damage.

Thayer Don't Believe It.
 LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 5.—Governor Thayer declares his disbelief in the accuracy of the telegraphic report that the Federal supreme court has decided that Boyd is entitled to the governorship. The public believe it, however. Boyd's old headquarters at a leading hotel are being prepared for him, and the Samoset club of Omaha, the Tammany Hall of Nebraska, have telegraphed local Democrats to prepare for a grand demonstration at the inauguration.

Governor Boyd, when interviewed today on the subject of the Boyd-Thayer decision, said that he had received a telegram at 9 o'clock last night saying what the decision would be in his favor. When asked how it got out, he said: "It seems that a stenographer in some way connected with the supreme court became possessed of the intent of the decision.
 This information he sold to a limited number of newspapers under promise that his identity should not be disclosed and that the news should not be published until he gave the word. He released the matter at 11 o'clock last night, but told my Washington attorney, under promise of secrecy; at 8 o'clock. He also informed him that leading papers had paid him $5,000 for it."
